

DID YOU KNOW?

- ASEE will begin its 125th birthday celebration next year at our Salt Lake City Annual Conference?
- ASEE's 2016 Annual Conference in New Orleans set an attendance record, with nearly 4,400 people?
- ASEE's Prism Magazine annually wins multiple awards for content and design?
- ASEE's Profiles of Engineering and Engineering Technology Colleges is the national media's go-to source for engineering college data?
- ASEE's eGFI magazine has been the premier magazine to attract young people to engineering for almost 15 years?
- After several deans visited Cuba in April, ASEE is now assembling a contingent to visit the country again in 2018?
- ASEE is overseeing a project on Transforming Undergraduate Education in Engineering?
- ASEE headquarters will soon have conference space that members can use for DC-based events?
- ASEE's Global Colloquium will return in September 2017, in the Azores?
- Bev Watford, ASEE's President Elect, will be our first female African American President?
- Clemson's Lisa Benson is the new editor of ASEE's Journal of Engineering Education?